In The Red & Brown Water

Oya can run faster than anyone, but not fast enough to escape her fate. When pressed to choose between her dying mother and her dreams of escape, she makes a life-changing decision. Her journey from the promise of youth to the complicated yearnings of womanhood is a joyous, raucous, brazenly theatrical experience. Visit www.brothersisterplays.org for more information. Please note that this play contains mature language.

Seagull

Experience a sleek, sexy production of this 20th century classic in a world premiere adaptation by former Oregon Shakespeare Festival Artistic Director Libby Appel. When famed actress Arkadina returns to her country estate with her young lover, the writer Trigorin, the romantic entanglements, artistic conflicts and jealousies that erupt threaten to tear her family apart. With newly discovered material from Chekhov's original manuscripts and a fresh perspective on one of theater's most elegant and enduring stories, this is Chekhov like you've never seen him before.
